YELLOWKNIFE

Yellowknife is the capital city and largest community of the Northwest Territories, Canada. It is probably the best place to view the natural wonder - the Aurora Borealis or Northern Lights. From mid-August to October and from mid-November to mid-April are the best aurora viewing seasons, because of the more clearer skies and darkness. The amazing Northern Lights can be seen in the Yellowknife area up to 240 nights each year!

Suggested Itinerary

Day 1 & 2: Yellowknife

Travel on Air Canada, you will be arrived on the next day midnight. Upon arrival, you will be transferred to your selected hotel and stay overnight. You can enjoy your free time or take rest until afternoon.
Depart for the Aurora-viewing tour (pick up time varies in different months, the exact time will be informed upon booking) at night in Aurora Village and back to hotel.

Day 3: Yellowknife

Enjoy your whole day at leisure. In summer/fall, you are recommended to take a Wildlife Driving Tour (at extra cost), while in winter you can enjoy a Dog Team Experience (at extra cost).
At night, you will be transferred to Aurora Village for northern light viewing and back to hotel.

Day 4: Yellowknife

You can enjoy your free day. There are some more experiences which can be joined during your stay. A good choice would be the City Tour(at extra cost) which brings you to explore the beautiful city of Yellowknife. You may also join the Great Slave Lake Boat Tour in summer/fall (at extra cost) or the Snowshoe Experience in winter (at extra cost).
Tonight is the last day of northern light viewing of your journey in Aurora Village.

Day 5 & 6: Yellowknife

Transfer from hotel to airport and take a early flight in the morning. You will arrive Hong Kong in evening on next day.

Airport transfer is available for participants only who are arriving via WestJet or Air Canada.
If arriving midnight or 1 am, please note that hotel check-in is 4PM. You would need to book extra night
